Introdução detalhada :

As a professional tunnel microwave thawing machine suppliers, our frozen meat defrosting thawing machine equipment are widely used for the thawing of frozen seafood, frozen meat, meat products, various fish and fish roe, etc. The industrial automatic microwave thawing equipment can not only realize the freezing and processing of frozen products, but also complete thawing and curing, and also has a bactericidal effect. Compared with the traditional production thawing technology methods, the frozen meat microwave thawing machine use a microwave source with a frequency of 2450MHZ or 915MHZ. When heating, the microwave penetrates the material inside and outside and heats at the same time, without heat conduction, industrial microwave frozen meat thawing machine can be thawed with packaging, fast speed, low energy consumption, environmental protection and hygiene. The industrial automatic microwave thawing equipment can be used for the thawing of frozen seafood such as meat products, meat mutton, various fish and etc. Microwave thawing technology can maintain the taste of thawed materials through thermal effect and biological effect, and nutrients such as protein and vitamins are not damaged. At the same time, tunnel microwave thawing machine has bactericidal effect and improves product quality. The microwave frequency of the equipment adopts a 915MHz microwave generator, and its penetrating power is far better than that of a 2450MHz microwave source. The processing capacity of the microwave thawing machine is related to the quality of the meat, that is, to the dielectric constant of the meat.

What Is The Best Method For Thawing Frozen Meat?

Mutton meat are a common meat product nowadays. Usually, when families take meat out of the refrigerator, all they have to do is thaw them at indoor temperature or in cold water. In the factory, this method not only takes a long time, but also causes uneven temperature inside and outside, and the meat is dark in color, poor quality and easy to breed bacteria. But the tunnel microwave frozen meat mutton processing thawing machine is a good solution to these problems.

What Is The Principle Of The Frozen Meat Defrosting Thawing Machine Equipment ?

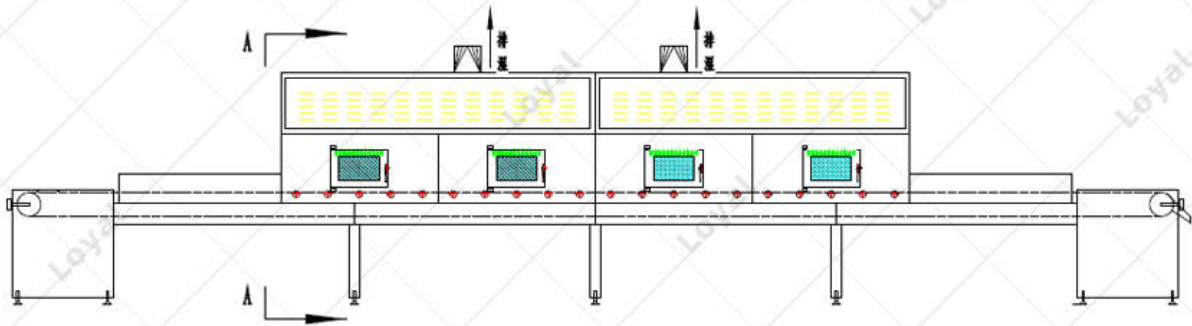

Microwave thawing is under the physical action of electromagnetic waves, using polar molecular vibration to generate elastic collision with surrounding molecules to generate frictional heat, thereby producing the effect of thawing. The main feature of frozen meat microwave thawing machine is that thawing does not thaw (-4 \sim -0 $^{\circ}$ C). Due to the different dielectric constants of ice and water, the ability to absorb microwaves is also different, so microwave thawing needs to be controlled below zero to prevent the generation of blood water above zero. Tunnel microwave thawing machine is also very beneficial to processing such as cutting, so the food thawed by this method has the advantages of low production cost, high efficiency, no bacterial growth and small footprint.

What Is The Feature Of The Industrial Automatic Microwave Thawing Equipment ?

The Features Of The Frozen Meat Microwave Tempering And Defrosting Machine
No	Features Of Microwave Thawing Machine	Details Description
1	Rapid Thawing And High Efficiency	Since microwaves can be heated directly into the material, the machine only takes 2 minutes for a piece of meat in 2 hours. The thawing time is changed from "hour" to "minute".
2	Saving Investment, Environmental Protection, And Pollution-free	Frozen meat defrosting thawing machine equipment saves space required by natural defrosting, which can be defrosted in a sanitary environment. The waste can be avoided to prevent the pollution of oily sewage.
3	Ensure The Nutrition Of Materials Without Corruption	Before microwave thawing, it is the process of cold storage. There are no bacteria in the process and the material defrosting and no loss.
4	Wide Application	Frozen shrimp meat microwave thawing machine can be used for other products, and sterilize the process to maintain quality.
